

Belle of Amherst due to foal April 2008!

This sweet mare has stolen our hearts, and we know this new foal on the way will too! Belle is in foal by Canyon of Quietude and this cross has us so excited we couldn't wait any longer to share the news. This foal will be more yummy than hot chocolate on a winter day! (Yes, we really have had at least one winter day here in So Cal!!!) Stay tuned, we will be announcing our arrival before you know it!
